NIH/Federal Executive Level Salary Limitation As of NIH Notice Release Date 1/20/2012:	$179,700 (Executive Level II) for new, competing, and non-competing awards with an initial issue date on/after 12/23/11. $199,700 (Executive Level I) for new, competing, and non-competing awards with an initial issue date on/before 12/22/11. Any grants awarded in previous fiscal years (e.g., FY 2011, FY 2010, etc. - before 10/1/11) are not impacted by the FY 2012 salary limitation. Carryover of previous FY funds into the FY 2012 budget period to support salaries will remain at $199,700. COMPETING grant applications and contract proposals that include a categorical breakdown in the budget figures/business proposal should continue to reflect the actual institutional base salary of all individuals for whom reimbursement is requested. In lieu of actual base salary, however, applicants may elect to provide an explanation indicating that actual institutional base salary exceeds the current salary limitation. When this information is provided, NIH staff will make necessary adjustments to requested salaries prior to award. Please refer to the NIH Notice of Salary Limitation for updates and additional guidance: http://grants.nih.gov/grants/guide/notice-files/NOT-OD-12-035.html
