

FIGURE 7–3 Quality of life scores on the SF-36 scale for people from the general U.S. population and for patients with BDD, depression, a recent heart attack, or diabetes. Lower scores indicate poorer quality of life. On average, on all of the scale items, scores for 176 people with BDD were worse than scores for 93% of people from the general U.S. population.